THE TRADE OF THE EMPIRE.

Regarding commercial affairs in France the Paris correspondent of the London Times writes:

There is no change in the commercial and industrial situation of Paris since last week. The retail trade, particularly in articles of dress, continues very brick, and is by no means inferior to the average amount of preceding years at this season. The accounts from Lyons, St. Kilenne, Tarare, Roubaix, and Mulhouse mention a marked improvement in the industrial position of those cities, which have been lately visited by numerous purchasers from Paris. Commercial relations with Russia are, for the moment, interrupted, the prohibition to export specie rendering all intercourse with that country impossible. The Crar is said to be making strenouse scretions to organize a transit trade through Frussia, but I lowever advantageous his offers may be, they will never induce any house in Berlin, Breslau, or Memel, to open accounts with Russian merchants, on the condition of being paid in paper roubles, which are now regarded in Europe as mere assignats. The price of grain has again increased in our markets, notwithstanding the encering prospects received from all quarters respecting the apprarance of the crops. The rise, which can only be temporary, does not exceed one france per hecto-litre in the districts from which Paris derives its supplies. Butchers' meat is still rising in price, beef selling, in the Marche des Frouvaires, at from If, 10c. to If. 46c. pet kilogramme; mutton, from Soc. to If. 50c.; veal, from 76c. to If. 64c., &c. The price of wine maintains itself very firm in the Bercy market, which has of late received a large stock from Mason. Letters from Bordeaux state that a great improvement was observable in the districts visited last year by the odium. An abundant crop, however, was not expected. The last frosts have done injury in Burgundy, and it is calculated that the falling off in the vintage will be about one fourth.

May 8.—There has been a good demand for cotton today, and the sales amount to 7,000 bales—1,000 on speculation and for export. Last Friday's quotasions are well sustained.

May 9.—The market closed very steadily, and prices of all descriptions are unchanged. The sales have been estimated at 7,000 bales, including 1,400 Pernam and Maranham, chiefly 3d. to 7½d. The Mauchester market was reported quiet to-day, at a slight decline in prices.

Marchester, May 9.—The market continues quiet, and though stocks of yarn are not large, there is some irregularity in prices. Generally, however, spinners have assumed a firmer tone since the advices were to hand of a slight rally in the prices of cotton in the United States. In cloth, prices are are very irregular, and sales limited. Printing cloth is almost unsaleable at any price, and the light shirtings so lately in demand for India have given way slightly in price. Teloths, long cloths, and domestics, of which large quantities are usually taken by the proceedings at Constantinople which the Sultan has been compelled to take, will be very severely felt in this market. It is estimated to be worth about three millions sterling per annum, or one-eighth the entire export trad

MONEY MARKET.

MONDAY, May 22—8 P. M.

Quotations for fancy stocks were pretty well sustained to-day. At the first board Cumberland Coal advanced 1½ per cent; Hudson River Railroad, ½; Eric Railroad, ½; Reading Railroad, ½; Canton Company, ½; Nicaragus Transit, ½; New York Central Railroad, ½. In the coal and mining stocks there was ne particular movement, except in Cumberland. There is evidently an upward movement in that fancy, which bids fair to be profitable to present large holders. That a great many will realise the moment they can do so without less, there is not the alightest doubt. An inflation will bring in new purchasers, and it will result in merely changing the burden frem one shoulder to another. The most extravagant reports relative to the activity of operations at the mines, the quantity of coal produced, and the profit per ton, are in circulation, and they should be taken with a great deal of allowance for the anxiety of large holders to realize. In the other fancies nothing new has turned up.

The steamship Franklin, at this port from Havre and The steamship Franklin, at this port from Havre and Southsmpton, brings four days' later news. The accounts are not important. Quotations for consols had advanced, the corn and cotten markets were more buoyant and active, and a better feeling prevailed among the financial and commercial classes generally. The position of political affairs on the continent were being better defined, and the success of the Chancellor of the British Exchaquer had restored confidence, and created quite an activity on the Stock Exchange. The news is, on the whole, much more favorable than that received by the Europa. At the second board there were heavy operations in Cumberland, at an advance of 1 per cent. Nicaragua Transit went up ½ per cent; Eric Raliroad, ¾; Reading Raifroad, 1; Harlem, ¾. This movement in Cumberland has been in embryo for some time past. Sellors are plenty, and put out contracts with a great deal of confidence.

A new and dangerous ten dollar counterfeit on the Farmers' Bank of Kentucky, has made its appearance in the West. The general appearance is suspicious, but upon the whole it is a good imitation of the genuine. The most imperfect portion of the bill is the left end. The ikeness of Mr. Crittenden is very dark and bleaded with the background so that the outline of the face is scarcely perceptible.

The receipts of the Virginia Central Railroad for the months of March and April, amount to $47,470 57, against $35,990 53 in the corresponding months last year. In-$33,980 53 in the corresponding months last year. Increase $12,460 04.

The following is an extract from the last annual report of the Morris Canal and Banking Company.—

The navigation of the canal was opened from Easton to Jersey City on the 25th of March, and continued with but little interruption until the 15th of December, when it was suspended by frost and the setting in of wincer. There was, however, an unexpected interruption in the navigation by a local rain, at two different periods, (most extraordinary in severity,) causing a break in the banks at several points in the vicinity of Paterson, and the destruction of an aqueduct over Techman river.

The cost of the repairs of these two extensive breaches amounted to about $10,000, and the loss of business consequent thereon was about $15,000 more.

Yet, notwithstanding the interruption, there has been a large increase of business over the previous year, as will be seen by the accompanying statement of current business.

The receipts during the year ending on the 31st of December last, from toils and other sources, amount to $188,902 42, being $45,216 74 over the receipts, of the previous year.

The current expenses for the same period have been $22,006 85, which is considerably larger than the expenses of the previous year. There is, however, included in this extraordinary repairs of the breaches, as above stated, the building of an unusual number of bridges, a greater amount of repairs to the locks than any former year, and the increased wages of workmen, and the cost of materials.

The warrants entered on the books of the Treasury department, Washington, on Friday, the 19th instant
